- John 2: What miracle was the first ever that Jesus performed?
- John 3: What Jesus says happens to those who believe in Him?
- John 4: What the Samaritan woman did after meeting Jesus?

- John 5: What four things served as witnesses to who Jesus is?
- Genesis 1: How John 1:1-3 and Genesis 1 compare?

Tips:

- The gospel of John is breathtaking to read. It shows a picture of Jesus unlike any other gospel account. Springing out of John’s closeness with Christ (he was in Jesus’ inner circle), this gospel reinforces aspects of the Savior’s life that the other gospels don’t mention. In fact, he referred to himself as “the disciple whom Jesus loved” (John 13:23; 20:2).
- The purpose of this gospel is two-fold - apologetic and evangelistic.
- As an apologist, his desire was to convince his readers of Jesus’ true identity - namely the “Son of God” - emphasizing His deity.
- As an evangelist, John states that he wrote his gospel so people would believe Jesus is the Son of God and have life through Him (John 20:30-31). The word “believe” occurs approximately 100 times in this one book!
- As you read, notice the 7 “I AM” statements that identify Jesus as God, the 8 “signs” or proofs that Jesus is who He says He claims to be and the fascinating contrasts between of death and life, light and darkness, and love and hate. All of these, like a laser, point people to believe in Jesus, the one and only Messiah.

- John 10: Why the Jews picked up stones again to kill Jesus?
- Exodus 16: How manna pictured the Bible as spiritual food? (compare Exodus 16:4 with John 6:31)?

Tips:

- In this section, Jesus exemplifies both amazing compassion and extraordinary boldness. Notice how He relates to the various people differently - depending on the situation.
- Jesus leaves no room for question regarding His authority and His identity. His claims of being the "bread of life," "light of the world," and the "I AM" fuel the religious leaders' fire of wanting to kill Him. He doesn't back down!
- The word "believe" is mentioned over 100 times in this one book! Take note of the times and instances in this section.

- Psalms 118: What trusting in the Lord was better than, compare Psalm 118:25-26 with John 12:13?

Tips:

- As you read this week, notice aspects of timing. In every chapter, an element of the Lord's perfect timing is in contrast to people's understanding of timing.
- Notice Jesus' deep relationship with His followers and His friends.
- John's purpose that we "believe" is becoming more evident. Notice the examples of this theme as you read these chapters.

Tips:

- Jesus is preparing His followers for what is to come – He warns them about persecutions, explains the details of His ensuing death, and assures them He would not leave them alone.
- The Savior then fulfills His predictions in the subsequent chapters and accomplishes the mission the Father sent Him to complete.
- Notice the theme verse (20:31) and understand its implications.

Tips:

- 1John is, in essence, a sequel to the Gospel of John. Notice the similarities and differences between the two books (i.e. the way John introduces the books, the names of Jesus, the imagery, etc).
- Whereas the Gospel of John's theme is "believe" (101 times), 1John's theme is "know" (40 times).
- The purpose of 1John is to show Christians what their faith in Christ means and to give them tests to find out (know) if they have eternal life.

Tips:

- Notice the theme of 1 John (5:13) and note its impact on your confidence in Christ.
- The book of 2 John is John's letter to a mother regarding knowing and walking in the "truth" (mentioned five times).
- The book of 3 John is John's letter to a friend to encourage his good works and warn him about proud men (like Diotrephes).
- Revelation is God's final inspired Scripture. It reveals the last days in three sections: what John saw of Christ (ch.1), Christ's churches (ch.2-3), and Christ's end times revealing (ch.4-22).

Tips:

- Christ completes his evaluation of the churches providing both correction and encouragement (Rev 3).
- John is caught into God's presence in heaven. He sees the place of supreme authority and majesty, the heavenly Throne and the constant worship of God and the Lamb (holy, holy, holy).
- The first six seals bring God's wrath as conquest, war, famine, death, and earthquakes.
- The only ones who can withstand the wrath of God are those whom He has sealed.

Tips:

- John uses the word "like" several times to describe the events that he sees. Some things were difficult to describe with nothing on earth to compare them to.
- These chapters record John's vision of the seventh seal of judgment being broken and the beginning of the trumpets being blown – i.e. things are getting bad on planet earth!
- In Revelation, trumpets primarily announce impending judgment. Although they are of greater intensity than the seals, they are not as destructive as the final bowl judgments.
- The first four trumpets announce the divine destruction of the earth's ecosystem (1/3 of most living things are destroyed) and the final three involve demonic devastation among people.

Tips:

- After the years of the Tribulation, the earth is in total chaos due to God's judgments. The world is prepped for a leader to step in and give hope. The Antichrist comes in with his charm, charisma and deceptive leadership to woo scores of people to his side. He blasphemes the person of God and claims to be God.
- The false prophet enters as a religious leader counterpart to the Antichrist. Where the Antichrist woos in the political landscape, the false prophet woos people into developing a one-world religion – worshipping the Antichrist.

- Here we see the reunion (Marriage Supper of the Lamb), the return of Christ (Rev 19:11), the reign of Christ on the earth for 1,000 years (Rev 20:1-10), the rerun of earth's final battle (20:7-10), the great white throne judgment (20:11-15), and finally, the new heaven and earth (21-22).
- The end times drama hits a crescendo in these final chapters of Revelation as we see two realities: Jesus is Coming and We Win!

Tips:

- The book of 1Timothy is Paul's letter to a young man he left to pastor the church at Ephesus (1:3, 4:12). Paul became a spiritual father/mentor to Timothy (1:2, 18) when they met on Paul's second missionary journey (Acts 16:1-5) and relied on him throughout his life. Paul wrote 1Timothy to counsel him on what to teach the church, who should lead the church, and how to behave in the church (1:3; 3:2, 8, 15; 4:11-16, 6:17-20).
- The emphasis of 1Timothy is to guard sound doctrine in the church (1Tim 1:3). The caution is that false teachers corrupt the Word of God.

- Pro 11: Compare Pro 11:24-25 to 1Tim 6:18-19.

Tips:

- As Paul faced death in prison, he urged Timothy to remain a faithful minister of God's Word, to do the work while enduring suffering and hardship (2Tim 2:1-3). We do not need to be ashamed of suffering.
- Paul challenged Timothy to preach the Word and to always be ready to convince, rebuke, and exhort. Some will drift away; we must stand firm in the Word and not let them distract us.
- Paul emphasizes the importance of loyalty noting that there will be some who oppose us as believers. Don't look for human accolades. Seek to please God.

Tips:

- Titus is another of Paul's "Pastoral Epistles." He wrote it to Titus, a young pastor serving a church located on the island of Crete. The purpose of the letter was to bring order to the church.
- The theme of Titus is to maintain good works. Our character is more important than our gifts.
- Philemon gives us a powerful lesson on forgiveness and Christian relationships. Philemon was a prominent member of the church at Colosse which met in his house.
- The gospel of Mark is a quick-hitting, fast-paced record of Jesus' life depicting Him as the Perfect Servant of God. Notice that the book does not mention genealogy. It jumps right into the service of the Perfect Servant, Jesus.

Tips:

- The gospel of Mark presents Jesus as the Perfect Servant. The gospel does not start with Jesus' genealogy or birth. Instead it jumps immediately into the ministry of John the Baptist and the service of Jesus. Mark dispenses with Jesus' divine titles, includes less of Jesus' messages, and focuses on what Jesus did.
- Notice the key words "immediately" and "then" throughout the Gospel of Mark. They communicate Mark's desire to move quickly in describing Jesus' actions. Remember, as the Perfect Servant, Jesus was a doer, not just a talker.

- Mark 11: Why the scribes and the priests feared Jesus?
- Psalms 146: Compare Psalm 146:8 to Mark 8:25.

Tips:

- The gospel of Mark records many miracles, including two not found in the other gospel accounts: healing the deaf and mute man (Mark 7:31-37) and healing the blind man at Bethsaida (Mark 8:22-25).
- The gospel of Mark has two sections. The first half of the book (ending in Mark 8:30) focuses on Jesus' service. The second half of the book (beginning in Mark 8:31) focuses on Jesus' sacrifice on the cross.
- The gospel of Mark is fast-paced with events cascading one after another. The key word "immediately" comes from the Greek word "eutheos" which appears 42 times in the book.

Tips:

- In Mark's fast-paced fashion, this section records Jesus' last days and hours.
- Jesus faces conflict with the religious authorities who try to find a way to discredit him (Mark 12).
- Jesus describes the Last Days. He warns us to watch for the signs and to pray (Mark 13).
- Mark 14 describes the Last Supper and gives us a way to remember Him while we are waiting for His return.
- Jesus is crucified and rises from the dead (Mark 15-16).
- Notice how Jesus quotes Psalm 22 as He is on the cross. In Psalm 22, you see what Jesus was thinking and feeling while on the cross. It's a powerful reminder of the reality of the crucifixion.

- Leviticus 19: Compare Leviticus 19:2 to 1Peter 1:16.

Tips:

- Peter, one of Jesus' disciples, wrote this book as an encouragement to early Jewish believers who were scattered far from their land (1Pet 1:1-2). He wanted to help them understand and benefit from Christ-like suffering (1:6-7, 2:18-21, 3:14-18, 4:12-19, 5:6-10).
- Notice how Peter began his ministry as a bold, brash, in-your-face leader and concluded his ministry as a wise, winsome, convictional influencer.
- Peter's letter gives practical instruction and encouragement for believers who suffer trials or live in conflict with their culture.
- Believers are ambassadors in a hostile foreign land. We are to behave in ways that honor the One we represent.

Tips:

- The book of 2Peter is Peter's letter to the church to grow in faith and trust the Scriptures (2Pet 1), beware of false teachers (2Pet 2), and look for Christ's return (2Pet 3).
- 2Peter is a glimpse into the life of the Apostle Peter, who knew that his time on earth was ending soon. He wanted to give a farewell encouragement and warning.
- The theme of Romans is the gospel or "good news." The key verse says that the gospel is the power of God (Rom 1:16). The book has three parts. Romans 1-8 explains how the gospel saves the sinner. Romans 9-11 explains how the gospel relates to Israel. Romans 12-16 explains how the gospel affects our conduct.

- Notice how it seems that Paul is in a courtroom bringing the case against humanity. His point? All have sinned and fallen short of God's standard (Rom 3:23). However, after setting the "bad news," he offers the good news in Romans 6:23!

- Isaiah 53: Compare Isaiah 53:1 to Romans 10:16.

Tips:

- In this section of Romans, Paul compares God's faithfulness to Jewish unfaithfulness (most had not accepted Christ).
- Paul was deeply concerned for his Jewish brethren and more concerned about their welfare than his own. If it were possible, he would be willing to spend eternity in Hell separated from Christ rather than see his fellow Jews reject Christ.
- Romans 10 offers a clear process for getting saved in verses 9-10 and 13.
- Romans 12 begins the practical section of Romans. Whereas chapters 1-11 deal with doctrine, this section ushers in the believer's response to the doctrine that Paul had given.

Tips:

- This week's reading clarifies how God wants us to behave as Christians including our responsibility to society (Rom 13), how we fit in with other Christians (Rom 14), and how we are to function in God's bigger plan (Rom 15).
- Our challenges today are similar to those that the Corinthians experienced. We have trouble getting "de-corinthianized" as we mimic the corrupt world around us (1John 2:15).
- 1Corinthians is one of Paul's letters to the church in Corinth. Paul had planted the church in this affluent, sinful Greek city (Acts 18:1-18) and wrote them after his departure (1Cor 5:9-11). Unfortunately, sinful cultural influences and their spiritual immaturity required him to systematically address each church problem in this letter.

Tips:

- The book of 1Corinthians is one of Paul's letters to the church in Corinth. Paul had planted the church in this very affluent and sinful Greek city (Acts 18:1-18) and wrote them after his departure (1Cor 5:9-11). Unfortunately, sinful cultural influences and their own spiritual immaturity required him to systematically address each church problem in this letter.
- In 1Corinthians, Paul addresses a host of major problems in the church at Corinth. These issues include deep divisions in the church, arrogance of its members, denial of key doctrines, and their acceptance of openly sinful lifestyles. For each issue, Paul brings it into the open and counsels them on its Biblical solution.

- Because Corinth was the leading commercial center of southern Greece, the city had many pagan influences and dripped with moral decay.
- Paul replied to several problems in the Corinthian church. He spoke to concerns about marriage and celibacy (1Cor 7), behavioral liberty (1Cor 8-10), and conduct during group assemblies (1Cor 11).
- Paul illustrated from his own life the twin principles of Christian liberty and the law of love. He concluded that believers must sometimes limit their liberty for the sake of weaker brothers.
- Exodus 32 tells the story of Israel turning from God to worship an idol and how God punished them for straying.

Tips:

- The Corinthian Church was misusing the spiritual gifts God gave them. It was harming the church body. Paul said we should view every gift and ability as a conduit of God's love (1Cor 12-14).
- In 1Corinthians 15, Paul gives the most extensive explanation of resurrection in the Bible. He identifies several witnesses of Christ's resurrection, explains the theological implications of Christ's resurrection, and describes human resurrection.
- Isaiah 25 describes the strength of the Lord.

- Exodus 34: Compare Exodus 34:29-35 to 2Corinthians 3:7-14.

Tips:

- The book of 2Corinthians is likely Paul's fourth letter (at minimum) to the church at Corinth. 1Corinthians 5:9 mentions his first letter. His second letter is 1Corinthians. 2Corinthians 2:3 mentions his third letter. His fourth letter is 2Corinthians.

- The book of 2Corinthians reveals that the major problems identified in 1Corinthians have been addressed. This gives hope to every church that any problem can be overcome.
- 2Corinthians is divided into three parts. In 2Corinthians 1-5, Paul explains the evidence that his ministry was of God. In chapters 6-9, Paul exhorts the Corinthian church to begin ministering. In 2Corinthians 10-13, Paul defends himself against the charge that he was not a true apostle of Jesus Christ.
- Notice the theme of “comfort” in this opening section.

- Luke's themes include: Gentiles, women, prayer, Holy Spirit, human sinfulness, and salvation.
- Luke 3 gives Jesus' age at baptism and His genealogy. The genealogy goes back to Adam through

Mary's side of the family and calls out the aspect of Christ as man.

- Luke 22: Why Jesus asked the disciples to pray?
- Isaiah 56: Compare Isaiah 56:7 to Luke 19:46.

Tips:

- Notice the human side of Jesus as He weeps over Jerusalem in Luke 19 and experiences agony in Luke 22.

- Notice the key verse: Luke 19:10 for the Son of Man has come to seek and to save that which was lost. (NKJV)

- Acts 3: How Peter credited Jesus for the miraculous healing?
- Joel 2: Compare Joel 2:28-32 to Acts 2:16-21.

Tips:

- The gospel of Luke ends as it began, emphasizing the humanity of Jesus as the Son of Man. In Luke 23, He comforts the women who wept for Him. In Luke 24, He eats with the disciples after His resurrection.
- The book of Acts is a transition book, recording what happened to the apostles and church after Jesus ascended to heaven.
- Luke wrote both the Gospel of Luke and the book of Acts. Compare Luke 1:1-4 and Acts 1:1-3. The Gospel of Luke tells of the life of Jesus. The book of Acts tells the legacy of Jesus.
- In the first half of Acts, the key church is in Jerusalem and the key figure is Peter.

- Acts 7: How the Jewish leaders responded to Stephen?
- Acts 8: What the Ethiopian was doing when Stephen met him?
- Deuteronomy 18: Compare Deut 18:15-18 to Acts 7:37.

Tips:

- Christ told the church in Jerusalem to take the gospel to Judea, neighboring Samaria, and to Gentiles around the world (Acts 1:8). Unfortunately, the church did not do this willingly. So God allowed persecution to arise (8:1-3) which caused them to flee Jerusalem and take the gospel to Samaria (8:4-5) and to the Gentiles (11:19-20) as Christ originally desired.
- The martyrdom of Stephen marks the official Jewish rejection of the renewed offer of the Kingdom of God.
- As the early church grows, notice the growing pains associated with such rapid growth.
- Notice the various times when people are "filled with the Spirit" that they then "speak the word with boldness."

- Acts 13: Why the church at Antioch sent out missionaries?
- Psalm 89: Compare Psalm 89:20 to Acts 13:22.

Tips:

- Notice how Saul progresses from being an enemy of God to having an encounter with God to receiving enlightenment from God and finally serving for God (Acts 9:1-9).
- Notice how Jewish Christians had difficulty believing that Gentiles could become Christians without becoming Jews (Acts 10:9-11:18).

- Acts 18: Who Apollos followed before learning about Jesus?
- Amos 9: Compare Amos 9:11-12 to Acts 15:16-17.

Tips:

- Acts 15 records how the church resolved the early tension between Jewish-background and Gentile-background believers. The question was: Can a Gentile become a Christian without also converting to Judaism and keeping the Law of Moses?
- Acts 16:8-11 records a key moment in history when missionaries took the good news of Jesus from Asia to Europe.
- The focus begins to change from Jesus as Israel's Messiah to Christ as the world's Savior.

- Acts 23: How Paul divided the council who questioned him?
- Ezekiel 33: Compare Ezekiel 33:1-6 to Acts 20:26-27.

Tips:

- Paul received several warnings about going to Jerusalem (Acts 21:10-14); however, he was determined to go as God directed regardless of the warnings. He was resolute in his calling.
- Notice the division that Christianity sets. There were uproars, mobs, rallies, and mass confusion against this new movement.
- The outcry against Paul (Acts 22:22) marked the Jewish dispersion rejecting the offer of the kingdom and their outrage that Paul said the Gentiles would have a part in salvation.

- Acts 28: What Paul's life in Rome was like?
- Isaiah 26: Compare Isaiah 26:19 to Acts 24:14-15.

Tips:

- While in prison, Paul wrote Ephesians, Philippians, Colossians, Philemon, and Galatians.
- Paul tried one last time (Acts 28:28) to testify to the Jews about the kingdom of God.
- The book of Acts ends with Paul in prison, ministering in Rome; however, the ongoing story of Acts is being “written” to this day as the church lifts up Jesus and shares His Word with the world.

- Galatians 5: How we are to use our liberty/freedom from the law?
- Genesis 12: Compare Genesis 12:3 to Galatians 3:8.

Tips:

- The book of Galatians is Paul’s letter to churches in what we know as modern Turkey. Paul was confronting legalism (attempting to please God by rules, rituals, and obedience instead of by grace and faith). False teachers were spreading legalism (Gal 1:9, 3:1, 6:12), perverting the gospel message (1:7), creating hypocrites (2:11-13), cursing people with trying to keep the law (3:10), and destroying their spiritual lives (5:1).
- Galatians is about standing in the liberty of Christ.

- Ephesians 4: What we do with God's truth to grow up spiritually?
- Psalms 68: Compare Psalm 68:18 to Ephesians 4:8.

Tips:

- Paul established the Ephesian church (Acts 18-20). The book of Ephesians is Paul's letter to that church. Paul wrote to reveal the mystery of the church as Christ's body (Eph 3:2-6).
- Notice the major shift in topics from riches in Christ to our walk in Christ. Ephesians 1-3 reveals truths about our riches in Christ. Ephesians 4-6 contains practical applications for our daily walk in Christ.

- Philippians 2: What Christ did for us which showed great humility?
- Philippians 3: Where Paul said our true citizenship lies?

- Exodus 20: Compare Exodus 20:12 to Ephesians 6:2-3.

Tips:

- The book of Philippians is Paul's letter to a church (located in modern Macedonia, north of Greece). The people of Philippi had come from Italy and retained their Roman citizenship. Originally, Paul led his missionary team to Philippi because of a vision (Acts 16:9-12).
- Paul wrote Philippians as a thank you note to the believers in Philippi for their help in his hour of need, but used this as an occasion to send along some instruction on Christian unity (Php 1:27, 2:2, 3:16, 4:2).
- Even though Paul was in a jail cell while writing this letter, the central theme is joy!

- Colossians 4: What Epaphras was praying for the church in Corinth?
- Psalm 33: Compare Psalm 33:1 to Philippians 4:4.

Tips:

- The book of Colossians is Paul's letter to a church he had not visited (Col 2:1). Paul wrote because they were drifting away from the truth of the gospel (Col 1:23, Col 2:4, 8) and were no longer finding Christ sufficient (Col 1:19, Col 2:9-10).
- The book begins with doctrinal truths (Col 1-2) and ends with practical applications (Col 3-4).
- Colossians focuses on the preeminence and deity of Christ.

- While in Thessalonica, Paul chose to set a good example by working for a living rather than taking a salary from them (1The 2:9, Php 4:14-16) because the people suffered greatly for their faith in Christ (1The 3:1-5). Paul urged them to look forward to the return of Jesus (1The 4:13-5:11).

- The book of Hebrews is a New Testament guide to the Old Testament. It proves Jesus is better. He is better than angels. He is a better priest and sacrifice. He offers a better covenant.
- The book of Hebrews is a letter designed to show Jews how Christ fulfilled and replaced the Old Covenant with a better one.
- We are not told who the author of Hebrews was. Some say it was either Paul or Apollos.

- Numbers 14: Compare Numbers 14:29-33 to Hebrews 3:19.

Tips:

- The heart of the book of Hebrews (Heb 5-9) focuses on the priesthood of Jesus. His superior priesthood makes the New Covenant better than the Old. He has done what all the other priests combined were unable to do. He opened the way to God permanently so that any person through faith in Christ can enter into His presence.

Tips:

- The book of James is a practical guide on how faith works. James says others will see our real faith through our works.
- James has some similarities to Proverbs (wisdom), Amos (social justice), and Jesus' Sermon on the Mount.
- The likely author of the book of James is Jesus' half-brother who did not believe until he saw the risen Christ (John 7:5, 1Cor 15:7). James became a leader in the early church (Acts 15:13).

Tips:

- Jesus' half-brother wrote the book of Jude to warn the church of false brethren teaching in error in the church.
- The book of Matthew is the first of four gospels. It serves as a bridge between the Old and New Testaments. The Old Testament is the book of the generations of Adam (Gen 5:1) and the New Testament is the book of the generation of Jesus Christ (Mat 1:1).
- Matthew introduces Jesus as the King and promised Messiah of the Jews. The book documents Jesus' genealogy presenting His human heredity (Mat 1:1-17) and His divine heredity (Mat 1:18-25).

- Deuteronomy 8: Compare Deuteronomy 8:3 to Matthew 4:4.

Tips:

- In Matthew 4, Christ endures Satan's temptation.
- Matthew 5-7 is the Sermon on the Mount, arguably the greatest sermon in history. In it, Jesus interprets the Old Testament Law and presents His kingdom of righteousness.
- Matthew 5:1-12 contains the Beatitudes. We can view them as "be attitudes" for what someone should "be."
- In Matthew 8, Jesus demonstrates His power and works miracles.

- Isaiah 29: Compare Isaiah 29:13 to Matthew 15:8-9.

Tips:

- As you read Matthew 14-18, notice that Jesus interacts with three groups of people: His enemies, the needy multitudes, and His disciples.
- In Matthew 16:18, Jesus uses the word "church" for the first time. This was the point when Christ invited all peoples to become "called out ones" (ecclesia) from which we get the word church.

- Psalms 90: Compare Psalm 90:13 to Matthew 24:42.

Tips:

- Matthew 24 and 25 contain an extensive discussion of the end times. This is called the Olivet Discourse since Jesus talked with His disciples on the Mount of Olives, just east of Jerusalem.
- Look for the Old Testament Scriptures that Jesus quoted in Matthew 24 (Daniel).
- Matthew 26 and 27 tell of the Crucifixion including what Jesus told the disciples as the time approached, how He faced the Sanhedrin, how He faced Pilate, and the Crucifixion itself.
- Matthew 28 tells of Christ's Resurrection and ends with the Great Commission (Mat 28:18-20).
