

Give Him Your Treasure

Neil Silverberg

12/17/2017

1. His grace allows us to bring him things that he has deemed _____ and _____.
2. The term _____ can mean anything we consider precious, but refers primarily to our _____ and our handling of it.
 - “Then, opening their _____, they offered him gifts, gold and frankincense and myrrh”
(Matthew 2:11)
3. This establishes a principle we see through all of Scripture, that a significant part of our _____ is to give God our _____.
4. In Matthew 6:19-21, we have two _____ and an _____:
 - a _____ command (“don’t lay up for yourselves treasures on earth)
 - a _____ command (“Lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven)
 - an _____ (“where your treasure is, there your heart will be also”)
 - a. “Don’t store up treasures on earth” (Matthew 6:19)
 - not because earthly treasures aren’t _____ but because they won’t _____.
 - earthly treasures are always _____.
 - b. “Lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven” (Matthew 6:20)
 - It is not only _____ but it is _____.
 - The ‘Treasure Principle’:
 - You can’t take it _____ you, but you can send it on _____.
 - Two vital biblical principles:
 - ‘God _____ everything’ and ‘I am his _____.
 - c. “For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also” (Matthew 6:21)
 - Jesus makes a wise observation that your heart _____ your _____.
 - We can learn much about making regular deposits in our heavenly from I Corinthians 16:1-2:
 - It is to be _____; it is to be _____; it is to be _____.

Fill in the blanks: Valuable, meaningful, treasure, money, imperatives, observation, worship, treasure, negative, positive, observation, good, last, lost, right, smart, with, ahead, owns, manager, follows, treasure, weekly, planned, proportional