Jesus gave the fivefold ministry gifts to the _____

The key to understanding the fivefold ministry is not to get stuck on the _____, but to focus on the function or purpose of each gift.

And He gave the apostles, the prophets, the evangelists, the shepherds and teachers, to equip the saints for the work of ministry, for building up the body of Christ, until we all attain to the unity of the faith and of the knowledge of the Son of God, to mature manhood, to the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ,

The ultimate purpose of the fivefold ministry gifts is to _____

The end result is a _____ church that makes disciples

Discussion Questions for House Churches, Triads, and Family Devo's

1. Have you, up to this point, looked at the fivefold ministry as gifts to the church? Why or why not? Are you able now to see the value in church leadership?
2. In what ways have you or your family been discipled by those who are in leadership in the church? How about in your house church? Through ministry teams?
3. As we near the end of this series, what would you say would be the one thing that could hold you back from being an Authentic Christian that makes disciples? Pray and ask the Lord to graciously intervene in that area and let's get started!
