If you don't know what to say, offer to pray!

Heavenly father, please grant me boldness to share my faith in Jesus with the people I meet today. Thank you that the gospel is good news of great joy, and not something to be embarrassed about. Give me sufficient love for the lost that I'll be willing to risk my reputation and raise my head above the parapet and be known as yours. Fill me with your Spirit today so that I might have the right words to say, and not to be nervous about making a fool of myself. Have mercy, Lord. Amen.
