

Sermon Title: Seek the Good of the Company

Speaker: Scott Wiens

Date: March 3rd, 2019

1. The Lord, through Jeremiah, told the captives in Babylon to seek the _____ and _____ of the city of Babylon.
2. It is important to acknowledge the _____ of God regarding where you currently work.
3. If you truly feel your job requires you to _____ you should consider looking for another job.
4. Seeking the good of your company is part of your _____ contract with that company.
5. Doing your job is fulfilling your call to _____ others.
6. When you go the extra mile the road is seldom very _____.
7. Helping someone do their job at work is the greatest way to show the _____ love of _____ without words.
8. Look for ways to help others in their _____.
9. You should work just as hard, if not harder, when you are _____.
10. As long as decisions made by our boss or supervisor are not _____ or break the _____ we should support them.
11. When we seek the good of the company we work for, the _____ is preached and _____ is glorified.

When you go the extra mile the road is very seldom crowded.
