

Rest is a Person
Neil Silverberg
1/13/19

Rest.

The rest and peace we need are the result of our daily _____ with the Lord.

_____ does not equal _____.

Psalm 23 is part of a _____ of Psalms:

- Psalm 22 (the Psalm of the _____).
- Psalm 24 (the Psalm of the Coming _____).

Psalm 23:1- "The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want."

Rest is not a place-
it's a person!

Between the death of Jesus on the cross and His eventual return we have the privilege of walking with our Shepherd as one of his sheep day by day.

Human beings in Scripture are portrayed as sheep because sheep are totally _____ creatures who cannot take care of themselves and therefore are in need of a _____.

Before you can enter a life of fellowship with God you must know personally and experientially that you prone to _____ (Isaiah 53:6).

❖ The Lord is My Shepherd

- The _____ - my soul is not cared for by a human shepherd but the Lord Himself.
- Is _____ - we must personalize it.
- _____ - I am in need of someone to guide me in the right way, lead me to the right pastures and protect me from myself and from the wolves.
- I shall not want - this statement reveals what is often called the ' _____ of his _____'.

No matter what is happening to me _____, I shall not want the expert _____ and _____ of my Shepherd.

Fill ins: fellowship; relationship; fellowship; trilogy; cross; King; wayward; shepherd; wander; Lord; my; Shepherd; sufficiency; supply; outwardly; care; management