

THE WITNESS OF GOD

NEIL SILVERBERG

In the Scriptures testimony is not first a report about what God did for _____, but about what God the Father has to say about his _____.

For example, all four Gospels clearly record how, at Jesus' _____, the Father testified about his Son (Matthew 3:13-17).

The _____ of God's Testimony:

People are enabled to believe because of God's own _____ that He gave regarding Him.

John gives three elements of that testimony: the _____, the _____, and the _____.

The best is to see the water as a reference to Christ's _____ and the _____ as a reference to his death.

The _____ of God's Testimony:

The purpose of God's testifying through the water, the blood and the Spirit is that sinners may receive _____.

Jesus teaches here that eternal life is more than living forever but the believer's _____ in the life of God.

The _____ of God's Testimony:

The true believer has the testimony _____ meaning that by the power of the Spirit's indwelling, he has an inner witness to the truth about Jesus.

No one can understand who Jesus is apart from this _____ testimony.

This section demonstrates the _____ of the Gospel.

This exclusivity which teaches that Jesus is the only way to God is dangerous in a world like ours where _____ rules.

We like _____ but when it comes to our _____, Jesus doesn't give any.
