

THE RIPPLE EFFECT

YOU CAN'T HANDLE
THE TRUTH

Stephen was a deacon, chosen to serve because of his _____ and his _____ in Christ.

Stephen was a man of character and they could find _____ in what he was teaching.

From _____ to _____, the chosen people went against God and yet, He still kept his word and made a way for them and us.

God didn't meet them _____ the temple, he met them _____ the temple. His covenant work is always outside the temple.

Stephen was filled with the spirit and spoke _____ and without _____.

Much like Stephen, when we are presented with the opportunity to _____ the Gospel, we are able to be bold and confident in our sharing of the _____.

This does not mean that we are to be _____ or _____.

The disciples and deacons were told that they would be sent _____ into the world, but up to this point (3.5 years) they have gone _____.

The obedience of _____ spread the Gospel of Jesus to the ends of the earth.

3 Ways We Can Apply Acts 7:

1. When given the _____ to share the Gospel of Christ, we should, without restraint, gently, with respect and honor, and without compromise!
2. We should protect our _____ from the _____ lies, or we might become like the early leaders who were so far from the ways of God.
3. We should be obedient, even to _____.
